Author Index

Bradley, K.J., 173
Britt, T., 133
Brooking, B., 75, 154
Bruffey, N.G., 202

Carrick, J.A., 56
Cooper, S.R., 79, 129

Dworak, D., 133
Dwyer, K.A., 182

Erickson, S.M., 124

Ferguson-Paré, M., 97
Flarey, D.L., 2, 8, 62, 112, 160
Frusti, D.K., 10

Hoffart, N., 173

Ingersoll, G.L., 166

Jones, K.R., 5, 65, 116, 162

Keeling, E.B., 2, 18
Kohan, L., 112
Kohles, M.K., 39

Lehmann, D.M., 7, 67, 118, 164
Linnen, B., 18
Lynn, M.R., 187, 217
Lytle, K.S., 209

Manion, J., 31
Mateo, M.A., 10, 160
May, K.A., 97
McDonagh, K.J., 106
Meeks, J.S., 139
Miles, K.S., 144
Moore, K., 187, 217
Mueller, D., 62
Musser, L.E., 194

Newton, C., 10

Pakis, S., 149
Pelfrey, S., 25
Peter, M.A., 209
Pilon, B.A., 69, 70

Schraeder, C., 133
Shelton, P., 133
Shendell-Falik, N., 49
Sinclair, V.G., 91
Soriano, K.B., 49
Spitzer, R., 1, 61, 111, 119, 159
Swearengen, P., 209

Tahan, H.A., 112

Verran, J.A., 169

Walter, S., 112

Zander, K., 85

Subject Index

Activity-based cost management, 116-117
Administration, nursing shared responsibility for research on, 166-168 Administrators, see also Managers shared responsibility for nursing administration research, 166-168 Advanced nurse practitioners marketing of in managed care environment, 149-153 Advanced practice nurses provider credentialing of, 154-157

Balance sheet, 162-163
Business
  future role in employee health care, 121-122 Business concepts, for frontline managers developing future managers, 67-68 management, leadership, and empowerment conflicts, 7 one payer's perception of managed care, 118 research as key to sustainable strategic advantage, 164-165

Canada
  preparing nurse leaders for future in, 97-105 future challenges and opportunities, 104-105
    health care scene in, 98
    in education, 101-103
    in practice, 100-101
    managing and leading in nursing, 100
    state of nursing in, 99-100 Capitation, 119
  provider's view of managed care, 145-146
Capitation payments
  and risk, 65-66
Care, quality of traditional indicators and patients' perceptions of, 187-193 Career development
  strategies for in changing environment, 56-60 Case management
  managing patient care in, 49-55
Case management (Continued)
    education, training, and evaluation of case manager, 53-54 essential skills for success, 51-52
    protocol development and implementation, 53-54 role of first-line manager, 50-51 managing across the continuum, 124-128 development of program, 124-125
    redirecting hospital-based program, 125-127
    vision for, 125
  patient care management by primary nurse, 112-115 Case managers
  education, training, and evaluation of, 52-53 essential skills for success, 51-52
Case studies, in nursing management breaking the self-fulfilling prophecy cycle, 2-4 evidence-based practice and outcome, 160-161
  value of the MBA, 62-64
Change management
  breaking the self-fulfilling prophecy cycle, 2-4 managing communications in times of rapid change, 18-24 strategies for managing your career, 56-60 Collaborative physician group practice management of nursing within, 133-138 Communication
  applied to disease management, 89 management of in times of rapid change, 18-24
  new skill needed under managed care, 84
Community systems management graduate program in, 75-78
Continuum, of care
  managing case management across the, 124-128 Controlling
  skills for disease management, 88-89 Coordinating
  skills to disease management, 87-88
Cost management
  activity-based, 116-117

Author Index

Bradley, K.J., 173
Britt, T., 133
Brooking, B., 75, 154
Bruffey, N.G., 202

Carrick, J.A., 56
Cooper, S.R., 79, 129

Dworak, D., 133
Dwyer, K.A., 182

Erickson, S.M., 124

Ferguson-Paré, M., 97
Flarey, D.L., 2, 8, 62, 112, 160
Frusti, D.K., 10

Hoffart, N., 173

Ingersoll, G.L., 166

Jones, K.R., 5, 65, 116, 162

Keeling, E.B., 2, 18
Kohan, L., 112
Kohles, M.K., 39

Lehmann, D.M., 7, 67, 118, 164
Linnen, B., 18
Lynn, M.R., 187, 217
Lytle, K.S., 209

Manion, J., 31
Mateo, M.A., 10, 160
May, K.A., 97
McDonagh, K.J., 106
Meeks, J.S., 139
Miles, K.S., 144
Moore, K., 187, 217
Mueller, D., 62
Musser, L.E., 194

Newton, C., 10

Pakis, S., 149
Pelfrey, S., 25
Peter, M.A., 209
Pilon, B.A., 69, 70

Schraeder, C., 133
Shelton, P., 133
Shendell-Falik, N., 49
Sinclair, V.G., 91
Soriano, K.B., 49
Spitzer, R., 1, 61, 111, 119, 159
Swearengen, P., 209

Tahan, H.A., 112

Verran, J.A., 169

Walter, S., 112

Zander, K., 85

Subject Index

Activity-based cost management, 116-117
Administration, nursing shared responsibility for research on, 166-168 Administrators, see also Managers
  shared responsibility for nursing administration research, 166-168 Advanced nurse practitioners
  marketing of in managed care environment, 149-153 Advanced practice nurses
  provider credentialing of, 154-157

Balance sheet, 162-163
Business
  future role in employee health care, 121-122 Business concepts, for frontline managers developing future managers, 67-68
  management, leadership, and empowerment conflicts, 7
  one payer's perception of managed care, 118
  research as key to sustainable strategic advantage, 164-165

Canada
  preparing nurse leaders for future in, 97-105
    future challenges and opportunities, 104-105
    health care scene in, 98
    in education, 101-103
    in practice, 100-101
    managing and leading in nursing, 100
    state of nursing in, 99-100
Capitation, 119
  provider's view of managed care, 145-146
Capitation payments
  and risk, 65-66
Care, quality of traditional indicators and patients' perceptions of, 187-193 Career development
  strategies for in changing environment, 56-60 Case management
  managing patient care in, 49-55
Case management (Continued)
    education, training, and evaluation of case manager, 53-54
    essential skills for success, 51-52
    protocol development and implementation, 53-54
    role of first-line manager, 50-51
  managing across the continuum, 124-128
    development of program, 124-125
    redirecting hospital-based program, 125-127
    vision for, 125
  patient care management by primary nurse, 112-115 Case managers
  education, training, and evaluation of, 52-53
  essential skills for success, 51-52
Case studies, in nursing management
  breaking the self-fulfilling prophecy cycle, 2-4 evidence-based practice and outcome, 160-161
  value of the MBA, 62-64
Change management
  breaking the self-fulfilling prophecy cycle, 2-4 managing communications in times of rapid change, 18-24
  strategies for managing your career, 56-60 Collaborative physician group practice
  management of nursing within, 133-138
Communication
  applied to disease management, 89
  management of in times of rapid change, 18-24
  new skill needed under managed care, 84
Community systems management
  graduate program in, 75-78
Continuum, of care
  managing case management across the, 124-128 Controlling
  skills for disease management, 88-89 Coordinating
  skills to disease management, 87-88
Cost management
  activity-based, 116-117

Credentialing
of providers by managed care organizations, 154-157

Data analysis
new skill needed under managed care, 83-84 Decision support systems in nursing informatics, 93-95 Delegating
skills for disease management, 88 Disease management
classic nursing management skills applied to, 85-90

Education
developing future nurse managers, 61, 67-68, 69-110 classic management skills and disease management, 85-90 community systems management, 75-78
guest editorial, 69-70
informatics knowledge, 91-96
leadership in new health care world, 106-110 new skill sets for managed care, 79-84 reengineering knowledge and skills, 70-74 views from Canada, 97-105 value of MBA degree, 62-64
Empowerment
conflict between management, leadership, and, 7 Ethnography
in qualitative research, 173
Evaluation
designing outcomes evaluation plans, 182-186 Evidence-based practice and outcome, 160-161 Excitement, work
and intent to stay, 202-208

Feedback, from survey to nurse managers about staff nurses' perceptions of their jobs, 209-216 Feminism
framework for research on staff nurses' philosophies, 194-201 Finance, for nurse managers activity-based cost management, 116-117
capitation payments and risk, 65-66
financial statements, 162-163
balance sheet, 162-163
changes in financial position, 163 income statement, 163
moving toward managed care, 5-6 Financial data managing, 25-30
agents for change, 29-30 minimum reports required, 26-28 planning and budgeting, 28-29 responsibility reports, 28 understanding the financial reporting system, 25-26 First-line managers role of in case management model, 50-51 Future, of nursing management developing future nurse managers, 61, 67-68, 69-110

Geriatrics
primary care in collaborative group practice, 133-138

Graduate degrees, in nursing community systems management program, 75-78
value of the MBA, 62-64
Grounded theory
in qualitative research, 174

Health maintenance organizations, see Managed care organizations History, of nursing lessons from, for leadership in new health care world, 106-110

Inclusion
skills for disease management, 88
Income statement, 163
Informatics knowledge
maximizing performance and productivity, 91-96 administrative productivity, 95 clinical and cost outcomes, 91-93 decision-making process, 93-95 Integrated delivery systems creating a provider network, 139-143 creation of network infrastructure, 142-143 critical success factors, 140 development of integration options, 141-142 environmental assessment, 140 geographic prioritization, 141 network mission and goals, 140-141 network budget and marketing plan, 143 translating plans into action, 143 Intent to stay feedback to nurse managers about survey of staff nurses', 209-216 predictors of, 202-208

Job satisfaction
and intent to stay, 202-208
staff nurses' perceptions of their jobs, 209-216

Leaders, nurse qualitative research on roles and functions of, 178-179 versus managers, 1, 8-9 Leadership
conflict between empowerment, management, and, 7 in new health care world, 106-110
new skills needed under managed care, 80-82

Managed care
financial management for moving toward, 5-6 managing in, 111, 112-115, 118, 119-157 across the continuum of care, 124-128 creating a provider network, 139-143
editorial, 111
marketing of advanced nurse practitioners in, 149-153 one payer's perception of, 118 past, present, future, 119-123
patient care management by primary nurse, 112-115 provider view of managing quality, 144-148 provider credentialing, 154-157 role and function within managed care organizations, 129-132 within a collaborative physician group practice, 133-138

Managed care (Continued) new skill sets needed for, 79-84
communication, 84
data analysis, 83-84
leadership, 80-82
resource management, 82-83
systems thinking, process improvement, outcomes, 82 Managed care organizations, 120-121 opportunities for nurse managers in, 129-132 nontraditional nursing roles, 131-132 traditional nursing roles, 129-131 provider credentialing, 154-157 provider view of utilization management in, 144-148 Management, nursing case studies in breaking the self-fulfilling prophecy cycle, 2-4 evidence-based practice and outcome, 160-161
patient care management by primary nurse, 112-115
value of MBA degree, 62-64 classic nursing skills applied to disease management, 85-90 conflict between empowerment, leadership, and, 7 fall and rise of in nursing, 1, 8-60 career strategies in changing environment, 56-60 case management model, 49-55 communications, 18-24
financial data, 25-30
management vs. leadership, 1, 8-9 redesign of patient care delivery systems, 39-48 skills in era of shifting paradigms, 10-17 teams, manager's role in, 31-38 myths of, 15-16
of nursing within collaborative physician group practice, 133-138 using qualitative research in, 173-181 Management services organization
provider's view of managed care, 145
Managers, nurse business concepts for frontline developing future managers, 67-68
management, leadership, and empowerment conflicts, 7
one payer's perception of managed care, 118 research as key to strategic advantage, 164-165 change management by, 2-4 community systems management program for, 75-78 feedback to about staff nurses' perceptions of their jobs, 209-216 finance for activity-based cost management, 116-117
capitation payments and risk, 65-66
financial statements, 162-163
moving toward managed care, 5-6 opportunities for in managed care organizations, 129-132 reengineering knowledge and skills for, 70-74 research utilization by, 217-223 role in developing and managing teams, 31-38 versus leaders, 1, 8-9 Market research qualitative research, 179-180
Marketing of advanced nurse practitioners in managed care environment, 149-153 evaluation, 152
legislation, 151-152
marketing plan, 149-151
strategic plan, 149
Masters in Business Administration (MBA) degree value of for nurse leaders, 62-64 Masters of Science in Nursing (MSN) degree community systems management program, 75-78 Myths
of management, 15-16

Needs assessment
qualitative research on, 179 Networks, provider
creating integrated delivery systems, 139-143
Nurse managers, see Managers, nurse Nurse practitioners advanced, marketing of in managed care environment, 149-153 Nurse, staff, see Staff nurses

Organizational behavior
qualitative research on, 175-177 Organizational processes qualitative research on, 177
Outcomes
evidence-based practice and, 160-161
new skills needed under managed care, 82
Outcomes evaluation plan critical decision points in designing, 182-186

Paradigms, shifting management skills in era of, 10-17 Patient care management by primary nurse, 112-115 Patients
perceptions of quality of care, 187-193 Perceptions, patients' and traditional indicators of quality of care, 187-193 Perceptions, staff nurses' of their jobs, 209-216 Phenomenology
in qualitative research, 174 Philosophies of nursing feminist framework for research on staff nurses', 194-201 Physician group practice, private management of nursing within collaborative, 133-138 Planning
skills for disease management, 86-87 Practice, nursing and education, developing future nurse managers, 61, 67-68, 69-110 Preferred provider organizations, see Managed care organizations Primary care
within a collaborative physician group practice, 133-138 Primary nurse patient care management by, 112-115

Problem-driven research theory-driven research versus, 169-172 Process improvement
new skill needed under managed care, 82 Process-centered organizations nurse manager as process-owner, 70-74 Productivity
using informatics knowledge to maximize, 91-96 Program evaluation
qualitative research on, 180
Protocols
development/implementation in case management model, 53-54 Provider network
creating integrated delivery systems, 139-143 Provider-sponsored organizations, 122 Providers
credentialing of, 154-157
in managed care, 121
managing quality from utilization management perspective, 144-148

Qualitative research
use in management of health care, 173-181 characteristics of, 175 increasing understanding by, 175-179 on market research, 179-180 on needs assessment, 179 on program evaluation, 180 studying management questions with, 179-180 types of, 173-174
Quality care
designing outcomes evaluation plans, 182-186 provider view of utilization management, 144-148 Quality indicators traditional, and perceptions of care, 187-193

Redesign, of patient care delivery systems redefining management through, 39-48 Reengineering
knowledge and skills for nurse managers, 70-74 in the future, 73-74
new manager as process-owner, 71-73 process-focused worker, 71 task-centered vs. process-centered organizations, 70-71 Research
strategic management advantage, 159, 164-165, 166-223 designing outcomes evaluation plans, 182-186
editorial, 159
feedback about staff nurse perceptions of their jobs, 209-216 job satisfaction and work excitement, 202-208 on staff nurses' philosophies of nursing, 194-201 qualitative, use in management of health care, 173-181 shared responsibility of researchers and administrators, 166-168 Research (Continued) theory-driven vs. problem-driven, 169-172 traditional quality indicators and perceptions of care, 187-193 utilization of by nurse managers, 217-223 Researchers, nurse
shared responsibility for nursing administration research, 166-168 Resource management
in era of shifting paradigms, 10-13 financial management, 12-13 managing diversity, 12 recruiting/employing staff, 10-11 retaining staff, 11-12
new skills needed under managed care, 82-83 Responsibility reports
for financial management, 28 Retention, employee
job satisfaction and work excitement, 202-208

Skills
classic management, applied to disease management, 85-90 for success in management, 13-15 new skill sets needed under managed care, 79-82
reengineering, 70-74
Staff nurses
feminist framework for research on nursing philosophies of, 194-201 perceptions of their jobs, 209-216 Statements, financial, 162-163 Systems thinking
new skills needed under managed care, 82

Teams
manager's role in, 31-38 steps in implementing, 33-37 team-based organization, 32-33 versus team nursing, 31-32 Theory-driven research, 169-172 incorporating into problem-based evaluation, 171-172 requirements for middle-range theory, 170-171 status of in nursing systems, 169-170 Turnover, job
job satisfaction and work excitement, 202-208

Utilization management managing quality from perspective of, 144-148 basics of solid program, 146-148 benefits of capitation and management options, 145-146 new considerations for managed cared providers, 144-145

Workload management
in era of shifting paradigms, 15